Flush-mounted ceiling rose with 1 central hole

Finish: Matt White

Description

The single-hole flush-mounted ceiling rose is the ideal component for modern, minimalist lighting that can enhance and adapt to all types of environments from private to public and commercial.

This wall-mounted rosette combines functionality and aesthetics: thanks to its reduced thickness, it provides a wonderful concealed effect that blends in harmoniously with the design of the room and is compatible with both masonry and plasterboard ceilings and walls.

Discreet and refined, it can be installed in kitchens, bathrooms and living areas and is always perfectly suited. To create a pendant lamp, you can complete the rosette with an exposed bulb or shade depending on your lighting needs, the lamp holder and one of our fabric-covered cables!
